

Jacques Denies - School Technology Innovation Center Manager – Microsoft Belgium

Efficient use of ICT – reflections on a structured set of examples

An open discussion on the relevance of technology in education through some concrete, scalable and diverse examples: interactive presentations – from copy/past towards an enhanced visualization of information – a simple and basic portfolio – 3D-images collaborative tools enable social skills – communication solutions bring education beyond the classroom – natural Interfaces